

Table Topics Master

1. Thank you, Mr./Madam Toastmaster. Table Topics are a great way for us to gear up and hone our impromptu speaking skills. Today I have prepared eight topics based on the meeting theme and have numbered them from one to eight. Who would like to volunteer first? (You may also call on someone; however, their requirement to participate is voluntary.)

2. ... I see that John Doe is eager to take a topic. John, which number would you like to choose? ... John has given us a unique perspective on this topic. Now let's see who would like to take the challenge next...

(Call up more speakers within the time frame)

3. Thank you all for your wonderful contributions. I'm very happy to hear your thoughts on these topics. Now let's see who's our Best Table Topics Speaker. Please take a minute and cast your vote on the pop-up window. Thank you again. Until next time. Back to you, Mr./Madam Toastmaster.
